

Overall progress in reforms to improve the functioning of the labour market to increase the employment rate in Italy is

Neither Satisfactory nor Unsatisfactory

Italian business federation expert: name@confindustria.it

Progress in specific policy areas:

Assessment of progress in reforms to improve work incentives is: 	Assessment of progress in reforms to improve the efficiency of active labour market policies is:
Assessment of progress in reforms to improve labour regulation flexibility is: 	Assessment of progress in reforms to ensure employment-friendly labour cost and wage developments is:

Source: Eurostat (link to website)

Source: OECD (link to website)